

Getting you ready for Nescot

Citizenship

What are the qualities of a good citizen? Fill in the blanks using the coloured boxes.

Responsibility

Dedicated

Attitude to other people

Participate in community activities

Awareness of the needs of others

1. Good citizens are aware that they are not all the same and that some people need more support than others in such issues as poverty, language, or diversity.
2. A good citizen takes personal [] to improve the community in which they live.
3. They [] such as:
 - Neighbourhood Watch
 - Fundraising and
 - Environmental campaigns
4. They are [] to the task at hand and set themselves on a course of action they are prepared to see through.
5. They have a [] in their community and are helpful, respectful, considerate, and non-judgemental.

Can you now give a definition of what a good citizen is? And explain why

Find and discuss a recent news article that demonstrates the qualities of a good citizen.

Click the link and watch the video, Territorial Army. Then, answer the questions in the table, below.

Responsibility

Dedicated

Attitude to other people

Participate in community
activities

Awareness of the needs of others

List the various jobs roles and backgrounds of individuals in the video

What roles are there in the Territorial army?

What qualities of a good citizen are required and why?

Now, thinking a career or joining the TA, complete the table below.

List the roles that interests you the most?
What skills will you learn?
What qualifications will you gain?
Do you get paid as a member of the TA?
How does being a member of the TA benefit you as a good citizen?

www.nescot.ac.uk

020 8394 1731

Reigate Road, Ewell, Epsom, Surrey, KT17 3DS

 Nescot